UK maritime assets supporting the security operation to protect Iraq's off shore oil infra-structure were placed under the tactical control of the Multi-Nationally-led Combined Task Force 158, with command rotating between US, UK and Australian officers. For a four month long period up to July 2007 the task force was commanded by Commodore Nick Lambert RN. During this period the Type 23 frigate HMS Richmond and Type 22 frigate HMS Cornwall operated in Northern Arabian Gulf. The RFA Sir Bedieuvre operated in the NAG as a Mother Ship and Afloat Training Platform for Iraqi Marines. They were supported by a repair ship and a fleet tanker in the central Gulf, as well as the RAF Nimrod MR2 detachment at Seeb in Oman. UK maritime forces were designated CTF 330 by PJHQ.
